TIME TO FACE THE RACE PROBLEM

Major, Kinnock and Ashdown are all competing to convince the British people that each of them is the man to put Britain to rights. They all know that the voters are restive and dissatisfied.

But in fact none of these gentlemen has what it takes to do anything much for Britain — let alone to save her. This is not least because none of them has the guts to openly recognise and honestly to discuss the one problem on whose solution everything else depends. We mean the problem of RACE.

Much is said about the need for a stable and prosperous economy, full employment, high living standards, even-handed taxation, efficient social services, decent housing for our people, proper education for our young, and so forth. Quite rightly so.

But we alone are the one party that is ever likely to achieve the desired standards. This is because we alone recognise the one condition above all of their achievement.

It should be obvious that nothing will ever be efficient for long unless society as a whole is efficient. But only a society whose members are naturally able to pull together can be efficient and only those of common race will ever naturally pull together.

Bluntly, British people can only look for worthwhile improvement, in a Britain which has once more become a homogeneous all-white society. This is the minimum precondition of all else.

There is no such thing, anywhere in the world, as a multi-racial society which is orderly, stable or progressive. There never has been and there never will be.

Everywhere that white peoples have tried to incorporate non-whites into their communities, the results have been conflict, chaos and ruination. All history proves it. Britain's multi-racial experiment shows no signs of being different.

Neither the silence, nor the multi-racialist play acting of Westminster politics in search of votes, alter facts. Already in Britain there is getting to be a bigger and bigger racial component in every problem that faces us. Ethnic pressures on employment, wages and social services are growing heavier and more obvious. And what about the collapse of law and order?

If this sort of conflict is allowed to stew for long enough there are many examples in the world of what happens. Ethnic groups fall out with one another in a brutal struggle for dwindling space and resources.

Over the horizon of the multi-racial future Britain has been set upon, lies the spectre of Belfast and Beirut, of Yugoslavia and the disintegrating USSR., where the ethnic groups, often much more similar to one another than those which have been placed cheek by jowl in Britain, have actually declared open war on one another.

One thing is for sure. It is unimaginable that this country can endlessly be flooded with blacks, browns and yellows and that anything remotely recognisable as Britain could possibly survive at the end of it all — let alone that we can raise our living standards or improve our way of life in any way at all. This is why it must be the nation's first priority to terminate the multi-racial experiment once and for all, before it is too late.

Peeress of the realm faces race charges

THE DOWAGER, LADY JANE BIRDWOOD appeared at Horseferry Road Magistrates court on St. Georges Day April 23rd.

That Lady Jane, who is charged with 10 so called offences under the anti-British race relations act, was summoned to appear on St. Georges Day was a deliberate act of malice. British National Party supporters of Lady Jane Birdwood (who is not a member of the BNP) rallied to her support on the day and together with supporters from her Choice newspaper, numbered some 50 – 60 on the day.

The establishment know that they have a tiger by the tail and several sunday newspaper editorials urged the government to drop the case. A measure of the importance of the case was provided by BBC T.V. news and several national dailies sending cameras & reporters to cover the event.

Also present was a repellent toad-like character who appeared to lunge at Lady Jane but was rebuffed by BNP supporters.

Recession deepens

THROUGH GOVERNMENT INCOMPETENCE, Britain continues to move further into recession. Every week 10 motor dealers, 15 restaurants, scores of other service businesses and dozens of manufacturing concerns are closing down.

Industry, under intense pressure to cut costs is slashing it's capital spending on new plant and equipment and laying off it's workers in thousands. Unemployment as a consequence is going up. Over 2 million now, it will be 2.5 million by Christmas and 3 million by next year.

These appalling figures show the desperate condition to which Prime Minister, John Major has dragged the economy. For it was John Major as the former Chancellor of the Exchequer, who pushed the country into recession by having Britain join the European Exchange Rate Mechanism (E.R.M.).

Just as in 1972, the mass media mounted a massive propaganda campaign of the benefits of the European Community and how closer co-operation (Britain joining the E.R.M.) would be 'progressive' and of benefit to Britain.

It hasn't taken long for this lie to wear thin. If you are one of the millions of our people who have never bothered much about the European Community (the Common Market), then bother now. IT COULD COST YOU YOUR JOB!

That Britain will only start to emerge slowly from the recession, possibly next year, is as much to do with this governments incompetence as it getting us into recession in the first place.

An I.M.F. report has found that Britain has the most expensive and least efficient governmental system than any other Western country. So much for Tory efficiency!

To add to this costly burden, all of us pay more tax now than 10 years ago. The reduction in income tax has been a conjurers trick. What has been given with one hand has been taken away with the other. The burden of Tory taxes and high interest rates is crippling industry — the basis of our country's wealth.

Another indication of a slow recovery is that the companies that might have manufactured Britain out of recession are closing down at a record rate. Factory output is falling at 2% and the receivers are in everywhere.

The government though, says it is winning the battle against inflation. But for millions of ordinary folk the 2½% increase on VAT was a 2½% jump in inflation at a single stroke! The governments lies are wearing pretty thin!

EEC and Treason

TRAITORS IN PARLIAMENT WANT to destroy Britain and create a European super state — the very kind that is breaking up in the Soviet Union. This cannot be done over night so they are doing it slowly, sneakily and slyly. Bit by bit. First came the Common Market (European Community) and now the Exchange Rate Mechanism. But the Exchange Rate Mechanism has proved a disaster for Britain — and John Major and the Tory government are entirely to blame. But bad as it has been, the E.R.M. is only a half way house. The traitors in Parliament have a secret agenda — full monetary union leading to a single European state.

The chaos of full monetary union can already be seen in Germany. After German re-unification the two economies and currencies became one. A monetary union in miniature. Karl Otto Pöhl, President of the German Bundesbank, has said of German Monetary Union, ''The results have been disasterous'' and warned of an even bigger economic mess if European Monetary Union goes ahead. German union is to cost Germany $65 billion a year for 10 years. Unemployment has rocketed and production and productivity have collapsed.

A worsening German economy is pushing up German and through the E.R.M., British interest rates — deepening and prolonging the recession.

Looking at the German union, full European Monetary Union would cost $260 billion a year for 10 years and this cost would be born by the 'rich' countries of the E.C. (including Britain) to pay for Greece, Portugal, Spain and Ireland. Britain's share of the burden would be 7% of the gross national product — a 15% increase in government spending. To pay for this, all of us will have to pay 15% more tax. Either through VAT or through income tax.

ELECTION REPORT

By Eddy Butler

VERY ENCOURAGING. That is the verdict on the British National Party's performance in the local elections held this May. The elections were fought for several reasons. They would be a useful training exercise for our local members. The BNP would be introduced to the electorate in preparation for the General Election. And last but not least, we had the opportunity to exercise our rights under the Representation of the People's Acts and hold public meetings. We succeeded in all of these aims and turned out some good results as well!

The best result was gained by Laurence Johnson of Nottingham Branch, who achieved an excellent 6%. This was in an area that had never been contested by the BNP before. Laurence ran a very energetic campaign, backed up by some good quality local leaflets.

The second best result was gained by Ken Henderson in Rochdale. Ken gained over 4% in a ward that is half Asian, so he in fact polled around 8% of the white vote. Ken also ran a very energetic campaign, the high point of which was a lively public election meeting, which received extensive media attention.

In Coalville, in a by-election for Leicestershire County Council, the BNP's candidate James Taylor polled a respectable 2.9%. As this by-election was held on the same day as the District Council Elections, our resources were too thinly spread to do Coalville justice. However, as Coalville had never previously seen any nationalist activity, this was a very commendable result — and shows the untapped potential contained in the small towns of Britain.

In Grantham, a new and inexperienced unit put up a solid performance in the Belmont ward with Andrew Fielding as the candidate. Andrew gained over 2% of the vote and received some quite excellent local publicity.

Finally, John Peacock stood in New Parks ward in Leicester and gained 2.2%. The main reason for standing here was to hold a public election meeting, which passed off very successfully and attracted front page headlines in the local press. The result was also a significant improvement on performances from the recent past.

Like the local elections contested in London last year, these results prove that the BNP has smashed it's way out of the downward spiral of votes experienced by all nationalist groups in the 1980's. The National Front however, showed that it is still in the grip of this downward spiral. Their five candidates in the West Midlands received an average of only 1.3%. Their best result, in Dudley, was less than half that gained by the NF in the same area last year, despite or perhaps because of a tiny march they staged in the area. The seats contested in Birmingham produced humiliatingly poor results. Outside the West Midlands, their candidate in Hemel Hempstead polled a pitiful 18 votes and suffered the indignity of having the Labour Party break up his public election meeting. These results are no reflection on the candidates themselves - they just expose the lamentably poor leadership of the NF, which has consistently failed to achieve anything. Generally speaking, the NF's best results were as good as the BNP's worst!

The spur which has led to the BNP's successful electoral contests has been a series of internal training seminars held throughout the country, the latest of which was in Darlington. Candidates have been selected to fight seats in the General Election, right across the country. The British National Party is poised for a summer of intense activity — the message that is going out to our activists is:— All systems go! We are on the move!!

Why join the BNP?

By Dave Bruce

IT IS A WELL KNOWN FACT that support for a political party usually exceeds its actual membership and the BNP is no different in this respect. So why is it that many people will subscribe to or buy our publications on a regular basis but actually stop short of joining?

It is probably impossible to define one simple answer to the question as it is likely to be different for each individual. I will however put forward some possible reasons and then point out the value and importance of joining the BNP.

I know from my own experience that there is this reluctance to join a political party. Even though you believe in what they stand for, simply because you have never done this before. 'Other' people join political parties, not you. It took me some time to actually join the nationalist movement in the late sixties because it seemed such a giant step to take. I was full of doubts. Was I doing the right thing? Was I good enough? What would my friends think? All those thoughts crossed my mind before I finally decided that if my beliefs were strong enough then it surely made sense to join an organisation with the same ideas, as I could do very little on my own.

Another reason, it has to be said, is sheer laziness and this applies to people who are due to renew their membership as well as potential new members. It is a fact that many people need that little extra push to make that commitment to join the party and where renewals are concerned, even more so.

Some people will also offer the excuse that they cannot afford to join, a reason many people will know that I strongly refute. Membership of the BNP is £12 per year, or £1 a month. A sum I suggest that is far from excessive when considered in relation to the cost of running the party. Put another way, we are asking for less than the price of a pint of beer per month for the party. Is that seriously asking too much?

In conclusion I suppose the question going through some peoples minds is 'Why should I join? Why not stay a supporter and leave it at that?' The answer to that is summed up in two words — commitment & growth. Once a person becomes a member it shows a degree of commitment, a sense of responsibility, a depth of concern at what is happening to our country. It could be said that by joining the BNP you become one of the leaders rather than being just one of the led. Also, particularly if a person becomes an active member, he or she will meet like-minded people and share with them the task of building our movement.

Building the movement leads me to my other reason for joining the BNP — Growth. There are many things we would like to buy, many more additions to our propaganda we would like to produce. Slowly but surely we have improved on our position since our beginnings but to really grow we need the finance to back it up and this is where membership subscriptions are vital. We could for instance do with full-time officials, not just at head office, but in key regions of the country. But even allowing for the modest wage these people would probably accept we cannot afford to do so.

So even if you cannot be an active member, your subscription can play a vital part in building the BNP. So how about all you supporters and lapsed members helping us in our fight for a better Britain by sending us that membership subscription NOW!

BLOODY HEROES

THE EVENING OF WEDNESDAY 1ST OF MAY WITNESSED ONE OF THE MOST HEROIC ACTS in the history of British Nationalism.

Fat black troublemaker, Al Sharpton was due to speak at a meeting in the Friends Meeting House on Euston Road, London. Sharpton was lucky he turned up late, for his arrival was greeted by total chaos. His meeting had just been visited by the British National Party!

Sharpton had arrived in Britain the Saturday before and immediately led a march and riot outside the British National Party bookshop in Welling, south east London. The rest of his itinerary was to include meetings in various black ghettos in areas of Bristol, Birmingham, Tottenham and Brixton. Ever the self publicist, Sharpton also engineered appearances on various T.V. chat shows. One of these was with odious and servile little creep, Jonathan Ross on Monday 29th April. Sharpton was so confident that he arrogantly boasted to Ross of his forthcoming meeting in Euston. This was Sharpton's undoing, for it was also our cue for action.

On the Wednesday, a small group of patriots gathered near Euston. Our numbers were few due to the short notice. Nearby upwards of 600 blacks, mostly from Notting Hill, assembled at the Friends Meeting House:— a venue, by strange coincidence, known to all nationalists as a rendezvous.

ATTACK

One of our number casually asked if it was Saint Crispin's Day — a reference to the Battle of Agincourt, when a vastly outnumbered English army triumphed against overwhelming odds. And the same moral held true:—

"The fewer men, the greater share of honour."

The appointed hour struck and the patriots moved into action with iron determination. The small group of proud white men boldly marched into the hall. Sharpton's much talked about bodyguards cringed backwards at the sight of this forceful advance and offered no resistance.

Inside the Friends Meeting House, the patriots found themselves outnumbered thirty to one. But this did not trouble them. It was the time for settling accounts.

Before the bodyguards could pluck up the courage to challenge the young British Lions, a smoke grenade was hurled into the hall. Mass hysteria immediately broke out among the packed audience. This was the moment to leave and the patriots made their predetermined exit.

What happened next can only be compared to a famous scene from Ryder Haggard's King Solomon's Mines. In it, the hero, Alan Quartermain and a few fellow white adventurers marched into the vast kraal of a primitive African King. The kraal was packed with hideous looking savages armed with spears and knives. The situation became tense and Quartermain shot one of the kings bodyguards. The savages recoiled at this display of white man's magic and stiff upper lipped coolness. Quartermain and his companions then turned on their heels and casually walked out of the kraal. Once the adventurers had turned their backs, the savages rediscovered their courage. A cry went up and the savages poured out in pursuit. A desperate battle then ensued in which Quartermain made good his escape.

The comparison would be complete had Quartermain stuffed a smoke bomb up the King's hindquarters rather than use his elephant gun to drop one of the savages.

COURAGE

Back at Euston Road, moments after the patriots left the building, a section of the mob rediscovered their courage and poured out in frenzied pursuit.

Great heroism and raw courage was displayed by a number of patriots, who helped each other in the face of overwhelming odds. In the end, everyone got away none the worse for wear. Some injuries were inevitably sustained, but no one was seriously hurt and none of our number were charged by the police with any offence.

A full blown riot rapidly developed in the BNP men's wake and large scale police reinforcements had to be called. One asian race relations officer from Newham was later charged in connection with an assault upon a police Inspector.

FEAR & VICTORY

While this occurred at the front of the building, two escape exits were flung open at the rear, as a large part of the audience fled, eyes rolling and faces grey with fear. Confusion reigned as Sharpton turned up in his flashy white stretched limousine. He didn't hang around long however and was spotted speeding off back to his Park Lane hotel; to get his hair straightened again, after it had gone into a frightened frizz. Sharpton — the man everyone loved to hate had come unstuck.

This bold, heroic action gained the British National Party massive media coverage. THIS WAS THE TYPE OF EVENT OF WHICH LEGENDS ARE MADE AND WRITTEN. A NIGHT OF GLORY FOR THOSE YOUNG BRITISH LIONS. A NIGHT OF TOTAL VICTORY.

Quote:—
"Take up our quarrel with the foe to you from failing hands we throw.
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die.
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow.
In Flanders fields."

SHARPTON DOES RUNNER AS BNP MAKES HIM EAT WORDS

I'll make your worst fears come true . . .

AMERICAN black rights leader the Reverend Al Sharpton, who arrives in England on Saturday for a "crusade of social justice", hit back today at British critics of his visit and pledged: " I intend to make them realise their worst fears."

from Richard Lay in New York

Sharpton, 36, whose volatile rabble-rousing style has caused violent crowd scenes in America, said: "I will make some dramatic moves, like meeting with the family of 16-year-old Rodney Adams who was killed in London— and no one's been arrested yet."

His reference to Adams provides a fascinating insight into the way he operates using innuendo and half-truth.

For in fact he was totally wrong about Adams. The case he was referring to was that of 15-year-old Rolan, not Rodney, Adams, of Godstow Road, Thamesmead, who was chased and stabbed to death by a gang of white youths near his home on 21 February.

And in fact the following day, a 19-year-old youth was arrested in connection with the case. He appeared before Greenwich magistrates accused of murder on 23 February. Eight other youths appeared charged with violent disorder.

Sharpton, talking to an American reporter, went on: "I'm not going to London to see Big Ben or Buckingham

Skinhead gang hunted for smoking out Rev A

by Nigel Rosser

POLICE were today hunting a group of skinhead British National Party supporters who smoke-bombed a meeting to be addressed by American black activist the Rev Al Sharpton.

Minutes before Mr Sharpton was due to speak to his supporters last night at the Friends' Meeting House in Euston Road, a group of eight white skinheads attacked stewards and hurled a smoke-bomb into a centre aisle.

The bomb skidded along the carpeted floor and smoked and flared as some of the audience fled in terror. It was stamped out by two men, while the skinhead youths were chased out into the Euston Road by a group of young men in the audience.

Police officers were mobbed as they tried to stop the black youths from chasing the skinheads.

One sergeant, his face and neck covered in vivid, red scratch marks, was rescued from a mob of jostling youths by a passer-by, who was in turn set upon as members of the audience coming out of the hall mistakenly believed him to be one of the National Party supporters.

Inspector Alan Gibson was also surrounded and pushed when he tried to arrest one of the audience.

One of the skinheads was tripped up as he fled and hit his head on the road. A WPc and another police officer tended to him, surrounded by angry black youths, as cars on the busy road were forced to drive around them.

The other white youths are believed to have escaped. One was seen boarding a bus. Around 30 police reinforcements were called in. As the anger subsided the audience was pushed back into the hall, and [illegible] continued peacefully.

Religious Society of Friends Hall, in London's Euston Road.

Only 45 minutes earlier the 600-strong audience — including some whites — had been scared by a bomb hoax.

Witness Nutan Rajguru, a 22-year-old student, said: "A group of shaven-headed white blokes approached the door and tried to get in.

Dragged

"As they were being searched, one at the back just lit this stick and threw it over all the heads into the meeting."

Three heroes threw themselves on the flares as the crowd rushed for the exits.

Angry blacks later caught one of the six yobs who had to be dragged to safety by police with blood streaming from his head.

After the scuffles, race officer Sultan Mohammed, 24, of Forest Gate, East London, was charged with assault causing bodily harm and threatening behaviour.

He was bailed to appear at Clerkenwell Magistrates Court on May 21.

A second man was being interviewed by police last night.

Earlier, black MP Bernie Grant claimed Britain is MORE racist than America during a meeting with Sharpton at the Commons.

The MP for Tottenham, North London, vowed to forge links between his supporters and the preacher's "mission" in New York.

SKINHEADS hurled smoke bombs into a packed meeting where black American preacher Al Sharpton was to speak last night.

Six attackers — believed to be National Front supporters — timed the attack to stop his speech.

But the black power preacher was whisked away as the trouble started.

Three men threw themselves on the smoke flares as the black crowd of 600 stampeded for exits at the Religious Society of Friends Hall in Euston Road, North London.

Blood

Dozens chased the bovver-booted gang.

One man was felled and surrounded by an angry mob of blacks before police led him away, blood streaming from a head wound.

A policeman who arrested a black man was punched and kicked to the ground. Two arrests were made.

The attack came just 45 minutes after the hall was cleared in a bomb scare.

Student Nutan Rajguru, 22, said: "A group of shaven-headed white blokes tried to get in.

Police and blacks clash as meeting hall bombed

SUPPORTERS of controversial black preacher Al Sharpton fought with skinheads who hurled smoke bombs into a packed meeting last night.

Police were also attacked as violent clashes spilled out into the street. One of the skinheads was beaten and left in a pool of blood.

The riot erupted when six white extremists, believed to be National Front supporters, gate-crashed the Rev Sharpton's meeting in Euston, London.

They hurled a smoke bomb and fire flares into a 600-strong crowd at the Society of Friends Hall. Three supporters of the American civil rights champion threw themselves on the flares as the panic-stricken audience stampeded for the exits.

NO MORE AID

ADDRESSING SCOTTISH TORIES at a recent party conference in Perth Sir Nicholas Fairbairn, former Solicitor General for Scotland, slammed Overseas Development Minister Lynda Chalker for her bleeding-hearted commitment to unconditional aid for the 'third world' at the British tax payers expense. Mrs. Chalker had praised Britain's £167 million food aid package to Africa since 1989 and proclaimed in an emotional outburst that this country would go on having what she called an ''obligation'' to help the 'third world' out of it's ever recurring and ever greater disasters, despite a trebling of the worlds population in the next century.

Sir Nicholas, who has first-hand experience of aid programmes in afro-asian countries, said ''She is the face of the weeper. All she is doing is giving these poor people the chance to breed more children, who will suffer the same horrible fate as their parents: death by starvation''.

In afro-asia, he remarked, it was not death that was the problem but birth. Speaking of the likes of Bob Geldof and his 'band aid', he said their only achievement had been to delay the deaths from hunger of thousands of Ethiopians, who in the mean time would breed yet more children. These in turn would be doomed rapidly to die in the same way.

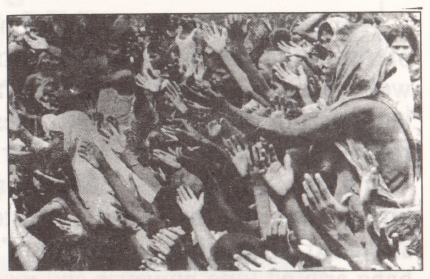
THIRD WORLD BREEDING EXPLOSION

He reminded his audience that in the ten days that had then elapsed since the cyclone hit Bangladesh, the country's population increase would have already replaced the 120,000 dead.

Speaking of the global situation that the 'third worlds' population explosion is bringing about, he said that in less than a decade ''the population of the world will have moved from the present figure of 5,800 million to 10,000 million. It's no good talking about environmental problems and national emergencies for people washed away in floods if the tide of population is not stopped. That, I believe, is the world's greatest problem.''

Mrs. Chalker's department, he suggested, should if anything occupy itself with supplying condoms to the 'third world', rather than subsidising it's people — and encouraging it's birth rates.

These are the first words of any common sense, on this issue, from any prominent public figure for a long time. We agree totally with Sir Nicholas. Furthermore, it is surely high time that our own interests were considered in all this. Chalker and her ilk want to make us the universal milch-cow for the breeding spawn of the 'third world'. Sir Nicholas Fairbairn failed to touch on this side of the problem. But it should be obvious that the worst aspect of aid to the 'third world' is that, as practiced today, it means that we in Britain and the West give away our hard earned substance for absolutely nothing in return.



Starving millions. A burden we cannot and should not carry

What fools we make of ourselves in the process, was highlighted by reports from Bangladesh following the cyclone. Local profiteers, indifferent to the sufferings of their starving countrymen, were busily exporting the country's stocks of food for their own profit!

This is on a par with the plunder for their own use, over many years, of Western food aid, by Ethiopian marxist dictator Mengistu Haile Mariam and his henchmen, who were quite happy to watch their country's famine carry off their tribal enemies.

Britain and the West are deservedly regarded with contempt by a constantly ungrateful 'third world'.

Sir Nicholas Fairbairn is right to say that the 'third world' should practice birth-control. This should be one primary condition of any further aid. Aid should then be given only in return for concrete advantages to ourselves, whether economic, strategic or other. It might well be linked to recipient countries co-operating with a repatriation programme for our afro-asian immigrants, by taking numbers of them in.

But whatever else happens, one thing is sure, unless we take a harder line, we will be pouring our wealth down a bottomless drain.

BRITISH 'JUSTICE'

BOTH GALBRAITH AND SIDDIQUI have been investigated by the director of public prosecutions.

Mr. Galbraith offended liberal sensibilities by calling prospective Tory M.P. for Cheltenham, Mr. John Taylor, a "nigger". Tut tut, how rude and offensive! Mr. Galbraith is to appear in court and faces a heavy fine and possibly even imprisonment.

Dr. Siddiqui, on the other hand, has called for the death of author Salman Rushdie, Prime Minister John Major and the publishers of Rushdie's book, right down to the girl on the switchboard. Luckily for Siddiqui, the D.P.P. has cleared him of incitement to murder. No heavy fine or imprisonment for Siddiqui then. Just as well he didn't call Rushdie a 'Paki'!

Mr. Galbraith

CHANGING MOUNTIES

AS THE PICTURE shows, the future of the white race is just as grim in Canada as it is in Britain. Just as in Britain, Canadians will soon become a minority in their own land. We say the 'third world' must not be allowed to colonise the white world. WE SAY SEND THEM BACK!

POLICE PREPARE 'CRIME WAR'

EAST LONDON will be one of the major areas of public disorder over the next 10 to 15 years. That is the claim of journalist Eddy Shaw researching a book about policing and crime in the U.K.

All the indicators, he says, point the same way — East London has entered ''a cycle of decay that is un-stoppable.'' Crime is part of that decay.

One indication of police fears is the building of a massive new police station at Forest Gate. 'Fortress Forest Gate' as it is known will stand in the middle of densely packed housing — home to huge numbers of asians and blacks.

RIOTS

IMMIGRANTS HAVE FOUGHT running battles with police in two European capitals recently. In Brussels, N. Africans threw petrol bombs in Belgium's first ever black riot. While in Rome, Italian police baton charged Ethiopian and Somali immigrants during savage rioting.

Italy and Belgium do not have as many immigrants as Britain but they seem to have the same problems we know so well. All over Europe, white nations are faced with ungrateful coloured immigrants. Those immigrants — all over Europe — should be returned back to their lands of ethnic origin in Africa and Asia. To make Europe and Britain white once again.

WHEN STOMPIE GOT STOMPED

By Eddy Butler

THE GREAT HUMAN INTEREST story of the month must be the circus surrounding the Mandela family. No sooner had poor old convicted terrorist Nelson emerged from a 28 year gaol term, than his thug of a wife Winnie prepares to go in the opposite direction on a six year stretch.

For a civilised society, the story behind Winnie's conviction is quite horrifying. But for Black Africa, this is all fairly average stuff. (Something white liberals are at a loss to understand)

Winnie's conviction centered around the behaviour of her personal bodyguards, the so-called Mandela United Football Club. It appears that a scummy white liberal, anti-apartheid preacher had taken into care several young blacks from Soweto. Winnie didn't like this and accused the preacher of homosexually molesting his charges. With what we know about liberal preachers, Winnie's allegations may well have been true!

Winnie's solution was to kidnap the young blacks and torture them. For those who don't know, this is a fairly routine technique for establishing authority in Black Africa.

One of the young blacks, Stompie Moeketsi, was beaten to death by Winnie's right hand man, Jerry Richardson. Richardson is awaiting execution for this in a South African gaol.

Mrs. Mandela — awaiting sentence. No blazing tyre to go around her neck

Before crying out 'Poor Stompie', the reader should know that despite his 14 years, Stompie was a vicious little thug who had led a reign of terror over large sections of Soweto.

After a delay of two years, Winnie and several of her followers were eventually brought to trial and found guilty. Not even the liberal press could complain about the verdict.

Until recently, Winnie was the media's darling. despite her obesity, her 'white' hairstyle and her luxurious mansion, she could do no wrong. She was wined and dined around the world and she was a favoured guest in our schools, such as Daneford in Bethnal Green. There, no doubt, she taught the multi-racial pupils how to liberate Britain with matches and rubber necklaces.

This time, she had just gone too far. The sight of the great she-elephant (as Winnie Mandela is known to her followers) going to court attacking homosexuality and having as a co-defendant, a ridiculous dwarf dressed up in army fatigues and purple socks, called Xoliswa Falati (a female!) was just too much even for the media.

Mrs. Mandela is currently out on bail pending appeal. We hope the South African judiciary do not bow to pressure from the treacherous de Klerk government and allow her to escape justice. It would be a fitting end indeed if her murderous husband, Nelson had to live out his twilight years with his wife safely behind bars.

NEW PAPER OUT

Northern NATIONALIST

THE VOICE OF BRITISH NATIONALISM IN SCOTLAND 40p

Issue(1) May 1991.

VICTORY FOR DUNDEE B.N.P.

Dundee B.N.P. has recorded a resounding victory in the city with the departure from high office of two of the party's most bitter foes, Cllr Mary Ward and Dr Albert Jacob, Chairman Tayside Community Relations Council, who had publicly declared that the B.N.P. would "Never organise anything in Dundee". "Bloody Mary" and her equally bloody comrades of the Socialist Workers Party and Militant had been responsible for the attempted blockade of the B.N.P. rally in Dundee on Cup Final day last year. We all know who was kicked into touch!!.

Jacob a member of the British Board of Jewish Deputies, and self proclaimed "Fearless Nazi Fighter," adopted smear tactics against the B.N.P. in the local press. These smears were vigorously challenged by a British National Party spokesman, and an invitation to a public debate was issued, whereupon Jacob ran for cover, and "Bloody Mary" entered the lists. The same invitation was delivered to her, but she wisely preferred not to pick up the gauntlet. All this had a dual effect upon the general public; the dawning realisation that B.N.P. policy actually differed vastly from the claims of our apponents and that these prominent community leaders were in fact disseminating deliberate lies about the British National Party. B.N.P. activities in the city increased, as did membership and support and a second unit was formed in the West end of the city.

"I'VE HAD ENOUGH!" SAID COUNCILLOR

Such was the intensity of nationalist activity that "Bloody Mary" tearfully declared "I've had enough!" resigned her position as Leader of the Left-wing Labour administration and moved house to Union Place, Dundee, following the break-up of her marriage. Shortly there after came the news that Jacob had resigned as chairman of the Tayside Community Relations Council, saying "These people just won't go away". In a further shock announcement he intimated his retiral from general practice and his intention to immigrate to ISRAEL. His successor the new T.C.R.C. chairman and community puppet master, Mr N. Gopal of 176 Glamis Road, Dundee, will no doubt play the same tune as Jacob and will be led the same merry dance.

FIGHT BACK FOR BRITAIN

NORTHERN NATIONALIST is the great new 2 monthly paper of Scotland BNP. With Scotland BNP growing so fast, a solely Scottish paper was bound to happen and it's a sign of the professionalism of the BNP in Scotland that Northern Nationalist is so well produced.

The front page story gives an in depth account of Dundee BNP's double victory, complete with the name and address of the new Chairman of Tayside C.R.C.! A very un-Scottish sounding Mr. N. Gopal will, we are told, be led the same merry dance as Dr. Jacob!

Northern Nationalist appears 6 times a year and subscription rates are £3.50. Cheques/Postal Orders made payable to Northern Nationalist, P.O. Box 161, Dundee DD1 9YR.

ORKNEY ISLANDS

BNP REACHES THE ORKNEYS! In the last week of May, a BNP leaflet drive saw over 1,000 leaflets distributed in Kirkwall and Stromness, the two main towns on the islands. Thanks are due to Bert Fralley for single handedly getting over the BNP message. Well done Bert!

DUNDEE ROUT RACE PERVERTS

DUNDEE BNP HAVE RECORDED A RESOUNDING DOUBLE VICTORY with the departure from high office of two of the party's most bitter foes. Dr. Albert Jacob, Chairman of Tayside Community Relations Council and Councillor Mary Ward have both resigned.

Jacob, a member of the British Board of Deputies of British Jews, adopted smear tactics against the party but was soon exposed as a liar. Challenged to public debate Jacob ran for cover.

When Cllr. Mary Ward pitched in, BNP activity increased and so did support and membership, with a second unit established in the west end of the city. "I've had enough" said Councillor Ward, such was the intensity of BNP activity. Mary tearfully resigned her position as leader of the Labour Council and moved house.

Shortly after came the news that Jacob had resigned as Chairman of Tayside Community Relations Council, saying "These people just won't go away". In a further shock announcement he resigned from general practice and has since moved to Israel.

Dundee BNP are delighted with this double victory and have said good riddance to both Jacob and Ward. Activity is now set to increase, to boost the profile of the BNP as the General Election approaches.

SUNDAY mail
SCOTLAND'S FAVOURITE

As election fever grows..

THEY

RECENT EVENTS IN SCOTLAND are thrusting the BNP into the headlines again and again.

Scotland's favourite Sunday rag — the Sunday Mail has done the BNP an enormous favour once again and made Scotland BNP the front page. "They want to be M.P.'s!" screams the headline, together with a photo of BNP members taking the mickey out of red agitators.

Moron reporter, Fidelma Cook claims the BNP are standing in 4 seats and spending £140,000 in the General Election campaign in Scotland — to exploit free postage worth £4,000!.

Inside, the BNP grab the whole of pages 4 and 5, as the dozy Fidelma Cook spotlights the BNP's 'Aggro Army' and deplores the BNP's recruitment of 'soccer casuals'. BNP membership has, she complains, trebled in Scotland over the past year.

The growth of the BNP in Scotland has been one of the key factors in the BNP's UK wide development and a list of BNP units reads like a Scottish map index. Clearly the race traitors of Scotland are worried — particularly the 'Scottish' National Party. Cow-faced SNP leader, Alex Salmond knows that the BNP's racial-nationalism exposes his bogus 'nationalism' as pure multi-racial filth.

Nothing can better demonstrate the BNP's outstanding progress in Scotland than the hysterical outburst from the Sunday Mail. The race traitors know — just as we know — that Scotland is fertile ground for the BNP and they are desperately worried. The BNP is moving steadily forward. WE ARE ON THE MARCH!.

HATE CAMPAIGN ... The British National Party is gearing up to fight four seats in the General Election

WANT TO BE MPs!

THESE are the men of hate who will field at least four candidates in Scotland at the General Election.

Would-be MPs who:
- Punt NAZI propaganda.
- Preach RACISM and ANTI-SEMITISM.
- Shout SIEG HEIL and give the Nazi salute.
- Target CHILDREN in mixed race schools.

EXCLUSIVE By FIDELMA COOK

They are the British National Party and their followers, often seen wielding iron bars and sticks at meetings, are thought to have TREBLED in Scotland in the past six months!

It's given them confidence to stand here for the first time ever.

They don't expect to win – they expect to exploit a system which gives them over £4000 worth of free post out of public funds.

For under election law their hate-filled literature is guaranteed mailings to every home in a constituency.

The BNP boast they have thousands of pounds for the Scottish campaign – some observers say the figure is around £140,000.

"We're going strongly in Scotland. It's one of the big areas of increase," said a BNP spokesman.

"We have definitely one candidate ready and a number of other people who will be considered.

"For reasons of security I'm not allowed to say who they are."

Now Scots anti-racist groups are to lobby the main parties to refuse to share a platform with the BNP.

● AGGRO ARMY – Pages 4 and 5

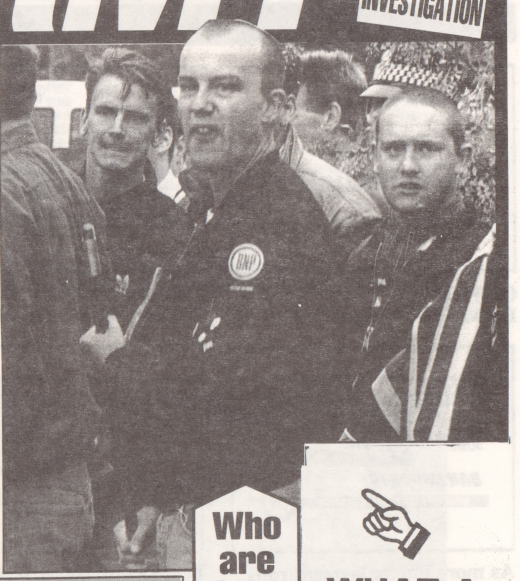
AGGRO ARMY

SUNDAY mail SPECIAL INVESTIGATION



Violence is their message

THEY live in a secret world of code names and false addresses, hiding behind PO box numbers to push home their messages of hate and violence.

Scared of discovery, they meet at rail stations around Scotland to direct members to rallying points in pubs and hotels, booked under false "club" names.

In cheap, misspelt newsletters they label Asians as muggers, rapists, and arsonists.

Boast

And they urge members to buy books which "prove" the Holocaust NEVER happened, along with Third Reich literature, and race pamphlets.

Now at least two members of the neo-Nazi British National Party will stand at the General Election, one in Edinburgh, one in Glasgow, probably Govan, where the BNP began its inroads into Scotland nearly eight years ago.

Today, they boast active units in Aberdeen, Dundee, Inverness, Fife, Edinburgh, Paisley, Greenock, Cumbernauld and Stirling.

And, recently, a disturbing cross-flow of Scottish fascists have been travelling to areas of international fascism such as Switzerland, Germany and Holland.

Among the Scots who have emerged from the shadows are:

● Unemployed IAN MACMILLAN, who was jailed as part of a mob which ambushed Socialist Workers' Party members leaving a meeting in Glasgow in 1990.

PARTY MEN ... John Tyndall, the leader of the British National Party, right, and Ian MacMillan, a member.

By FIDELMA COOK

He and three other BNP members got 12 months after they screamed BNP slogans as they attacked with Japanese fighting sticks and bottles. Sieg Heil was shouted.

● Another, STEVEN CARTWRIGHT, a Glaswegian, is Scottish organiser. Many see him as the likely Govan candidate.

Cartwright was the main [illegible] behind the handing out of leaflets to young children last year.

He said then: "I'm doing nothing illegal. It's refreshing the balance [illegible] left-wing teachers pollute children's minds."

● ERIC BRAND is credited with setting up the BNP group system and worked with JOHN TYNDALL, the head of the BNP, but left the Scottish scene after the fighting incident.

● GUS MCLEOD, a mature student, now at Glasgow Tech, has been keeping a low profile recently – he was last seen in public at the 1990 Dundee rally.

● MICHAEL WHYTE, 21, has been identified as a senior organiser, in Lothian and Borders. Whyte uses the alias Mark Wells. Co-organiser is Broxburn-based NEIL MACMICHAEL.

And GARETH BROWN, a [illegible] said in the [illegible] Dundee [illegible] and others tried to [illegible] there.

[illegible] two other Dundee neo-Nazis GUY LORENS and CRAIG [illegible] convicted of making [illegible] Ward and the head of the Jewish community in Dundee, Dr Alex Jacobs.

The BNP moved into "fertile ground" in the football scene in the West of Scotland.

ALEX SALMOND ... racist filth

The boss with a criminal record

HEAD of the BNP is John Tyndall, who has a lengthy criminal record.

In 1986, Tyndall and John Morse, the editor of his paper, The British Nationalist, were sent to prison for offences under the Race Relations Act.

Jail

Northern Nationalist, which claims to be "the Voice of British Nationalism in Scotland," had them "jailed for being patriots."

Tyndall frequently visits Scotland for party rallies, his most prominent trip, in May 1990, where he was surrounded by supporters with dogs and sticks.

The party formed out of a split with the National Front – the best known of far Right groups.

They have infiltrated soccer "casuals" and even formed links with Ulster Loyalist groups in the province.

Maggie Chetty, Senior Community Relations Officer for Strathclyde, says: "Their slogans and stickers are all over. Racial attacks are increasing."

They've been stepping up recruitment and have moved into the large housing schemes, targeting unemployed youths.

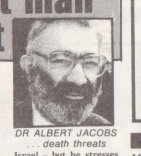
All three major political parties abhor BNP "policies." But the SNP are the most vehement.

The BNP accuse them of not supporting the Scottish people by fielding Asian candidates.

Said SNP leader Alex Salmond: "Scotland can do without the BNP's racist filth. I hope people will show there's no support for the party's obscenities."

Post Office trade unionists have been asked to check illegal or racist material and activists plan to disrupt BNP election meetings.

Target man defiant



DR ALBERT JACOBS ... death threats

ALBERT JACOBS has made himself a target for neo-Nazi groups because he refuses to stay silent. His people did that once ... and six million were wiped out.

His main opponents, the BNP, claim that was a Jewish lie to get sympathy.

"Yes I've had death threats, bomb hoaxes, sticker campaigns against me," he said in his Dundee home. "But they have never got the better of me.

"The words Jacobs Must Die were painted on the synagogue here. But I will speak out to anyone who will listen. These people must be stopped."

Dr Jacobs, now retired as a GP, leaves the city this weekend to live in Israel – but he stresses the BNP and their like have NOT driven him out.

"No," he said, "I just want to be part of a wider Jewish community."

Dr Jacobs went on: "Recent information suggests these people are being funded from abroad through Holland.

"I think it is a mistake to dismiss them as ridiculous but we must not ignore them. We do that at our peril."

Who are these men of hate?

■ THESE are the faces of hate. Members of the British National Party get set for another demo.

■ BUT who are these men peddling their gospel of evil?

East End Update

THE BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY'S HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL 'Rights For Whites' campaigning has yet again been hitting the headlines in London's East End.

Trouble flared when Tower Hamlets council prepared a vacant ground floor property in a small block on Hackney Road for a Bangladeshi family. The Bethnal Green block was exclusively occupied by elderly white residents.

Allegedly, upon hearing of this scheme, the residents vandalised the empty flat. Although it has never been established that any supposed vandalism had any connection with this Bangladeshi family in particular, the Liberal administration then saw fit to send threatening letters to all the residents, promising 'criminal action' against any culprits!

The local Liberal councillor and prospective Parliamentary candidate Jeremy Shaw then turned up, only to be told to clear off by the residents, who told him they would be voting for 'Rights For Whites'!

Tower Hamlets British National Party then decided it was time to act! A special leaflet was rapidly distributed in the surrounding area, which besides bringing in a welcome crop of new recruits, brought the affair to the notice of the East London Advertiser. The resulting publicity forced the Liberals to apologise for their threatening letter!

Soon afterwards, the Bangladeshis moved into the property, but only after thousands of pounds worth of security equipment had been installed. This further infuriated the local residents who had been unsuccessfully campaigning for years to have entry phones installed.

Next we were passed confidential information from a source within Tower Hamlets council, that caretakers were being recruited to guard the Bangladeshi family. This personal caretaker service includes walking the daughter to her school — only one minute around the corner, and treating the family 'with respect'!

Our information is that about ten, mostly white, caretakers have volunteered to carry out these tasks on a shift basis, for the princely sum of £15 per night! In a quite sickening display they have sold out their country for 15 pieces of silver. It has never been established that this Bangladeshi and his family have been under any sort of threat what-so-ever. When has a white family ever received this kind of five-star treatment?!

Needless to say, a second leaflet was produced and distributed. The firm message that is getting through to the good people of Bethnal Green is that if they want to defend 'Rights for Whites', then they must vote for Richard Edmonds, their British National Party candidate at the next General Election.

★ 'RIGHTS FOR WHITES' campaigns have spread from the East End of London to Thamesmead. In the next issue of BN we can reveal our latest campaign in West London. Soon the whole of Britain will be shouting out with us in one voice — 'DEFEND RIGHTS FOR WHITES!'

ALBERT MARINER REMEMBERED

FLOWERS WERE LAID RECENTLY ON THE GRAVE of Albert Mariner at the anniversary of his untimely death. Albert was a pensioner who had served his country during the war. Albert later became a devoted nationalist with Tower Hamlets branch. He fell in 1983 after being struck on the head by a missile thrown by a cowardly savage while on his way to an election meeting in Tottenham.

There was a time when various petty organisations tried to claim Albert as one of their own. We note that none of these now care to visit and tend to Albert's grave. Words are cheap — but we, his closest colleagues in Tower Hamlets will always cherish his memory as a comrade. Albert marches on with us — his hand painted branch banner is always at our side — his memory will be with us for ever.

SOUTH AFRICA DEMO

TUESDAY MAY 14 SAW A LIVELY DEMONSTRATION organised by the British National Party outside the South African embassy in central London.

Holding BNP 'Support White South Africa' posters, a Union Jack and the flag of the nationalist AWB of South Africa; BNP members were protesting against the government shooting of two white farmers by the police.

A letter of protest was delivered to the ambassador giving notice that the BNP is well aware, as are nationalists in S.A, that the National Party government of de Klerk has sold out the white people there to the murderous terrorists of the ANC.

As the demo went on, visitors to the embassy were both surprised and delighted to find the BNP demo in support of the beleaguered whites of S.A. and they in turn showed their support for the demo. BNP members were happy to pose for pictures for one South African lady and the demo got a surprising number of toots of support from passing motorists.

The pleasing level of support for the BNP demo, not just from South Africans but also from ordinary British folk, shows that there is a rising level of support for our views and that quite a few people have seen through the lies about South Africa.

DEWSBURY: CAMPAIGN HOTS UP

By Eddy Morrison

WITH THE GENERAL ELECTION CAMPAIGN due at the very latest this time next year, the British National Party is firmly committed to contesting the Dewsbury constituency in the General Election.

Veteran nationalist, Stanley Clayton-Garnett has been selected to fight the seat.

Stan, who has gained respectable votes for the BNP in the past is to campaign on the principal of a parents right to choose their child's education — a controversial issue in Dewsbury's heavily asianised schools.

The Labour M.P. for Dewsbury, Anne Taylor is a notorious champion of multi-racialism and there is a growing dislike for her throughout the constituency by white working class voters who feel deeply disturbed by her pandering to the ethnic vote.

In the past four weeks, activists from the BNP regional activist corps, ably led by Wakefield Organiser, Wayne Gidman have been constantly active. With paper sales and 6,000 leaflets and stickers going out all over Dewsbury.

The 'Dewsbury Reporter' gave the BNP some welcome coverage when it discovered dozens of BNP posters in the town centre. So far, the 'offending' posters are still to be removed having survived a council steam cleaning operation!

The campaign will continue unchecked until the election and already a number of enquiries have been received by BNP National H.Q. —including several new members.

With months of campaigning still to go, W. Yorks BNP aim to put the party into constant local prominence and turn Dewsbury into a BNP town!

ROGER EVANS

IT IS WITH GREAT SADNESS that we report the death of Roger Evans. Roger was a loyal nationalist who had been involved in the struggle since the early 1970s. As an active member of Waltham Forest branch of the NF, Roger was in those years a tireless worker. He was prominent in the early days down Brick Lane and he distinguished himself on a number of occasions in defending the sales pitch from attack. Roger never missed an activity and was even arrested at the lively Turnpike Lane march in 1978 for repelling a red assault.

Working abroad in the early 1980s, Roger returned to Britain in 1984 and rejoined Tower Hamlets branch where he was a popular member, known for his generosity. His dry Welsh humour was appreciated by all who knew him.

Roger stood twice as a candidate in local elections in 1986 for the National Front — achieving over 11% of the vote in one ward. However, with the splits that occurred in the National Front that year, Roger dropped out and his work as a soil technician took him around the country. Wherever he was however, Roger always saw to it that he had copies of Holocaust News to deliver around sleepy rural villages!

Attracted by the hugely successful 'Rights for Whites' campaign in the East End in 1990. Roger enthusiastically joined the British National Party and resumed close contact with his many friends in Tower Hamlets.

Roger had become a regular again down Brick Lane prior to his death and featured in the recent Panorama programme as part of the crowd when the Reds attempted to picket our sales pitch there earlier this year.

Sadly, Roger died while working near Folkstone. He should have had a good many more years ahead of him. He will be greatly missed by his many friends.

Tyndall visit to United States

JOHN TYNDALL, British National Party leader made a two-week speaking tour of the United States at the end of May. The trip was sponsored by the Populist Party, an American patriotic party and took in Atlanta, Georgia; Winston Salem, N. Carolina; Washington D.C.; Eastern Pennsylvania; Northern New Jersey; Los Angeles and Chicago.

Although sponsored by the Populist Party, the chance to hear John Tyndall, the most well known British Nationalist leader drew big crowds from all over the Nationalist scene.

Besides speaking at a number of meetings, Mr. Tyndall also met privately with leaders in America to discuss ways of furthering our common racial struggle on both sides of the Atlantic.

This prestigious engagement is yet another reflection of the growing strength and fame of the British National Party both here in Britain and abroad where the BNP has been getting increasing international news coverage.

NEW GROUP FORMED

THE EXPANSION of the BNP continues apace in Hertfordshire with the formation of a Watford group of the British National Party.

The first meeting of the new group was attended by 30 members and supporters and the organiser thanks members from the nearby units which supported the meeting.

National Organiser, David Bruce addressed the meeting which ended in great enthusiasm and confidence for the future of the BNP in Herts.

MORRISON SPEAKS AT MANCHESTER

FANTASTIC! — Was the only word that could describe the atmosphere of Manchester BNP's meeting, held on Sunday 19th May.

Nearly sixty people heard Yorkshire Regional Organiser, Eddy Morrison call for total commitment to building the British National Party across the North.

Ably chaired by local leader, Alan Payne, Manchester nationalists were joined by patriots from Liverpool and Rochdale BNP units. Particularly noticeable and encouraging, was the large number of new, young supporters in the audience. Eddy also met former supporters of Lancashire NF, whom the BNP is now welcoming into it's ranks.

"It is not just tomorrow that belongs to us", concluded Eddy, "It is today too, that is ours!"

Many, many more Lancashire units are expected to be set up this Summer.

Great March

SATURDAY, MAY 25TH WITNESSED THE BIGGEST NATIONALIST MARCH IN SOUTH LONDON FOR MORE THAN A DECADE. MILLIONS OF VIEWERS WATCHING ALL 3 T.V. CHANNELS SAW A FOREST OF UNION JACKS —A SOLID PHALANX OF MARCHERS ON NATIONAL T.V. NEWS MARCHING FOR RIGHTS FOR WHITES.

The red, white and blue of the Union flags added spectacular colour as the march set off in brilliant sunshine.

Something like 350 people marched behind BNP banners and placards demanding 'Rights for Whites', although some observers put the figure at over 400. Hundreds more lined the expected route to show support for and join the march.

The 'Rights for Whites' campaign organised by the British National Party had finally come south of the river Thames!

For two weeks before the march, thousands of leaflets had been distributed all over Thamesmead calling for 'Rights for Whites' and advertising the march generating good newspaper and T.V. coverage — with National Officer, Richard Edmonds being interviewed for T.V. news on several occasions.

GREAT MARCH

During the two weeks leading up to the march, the scum from the left wing attempted to make a mass mobilisation of red demonstrators from all over the country to go to Thamesmead. In the event, they managed to collect just 300 trashy reds to infect Thamesmead with their presence.

Arriving at Thamesmead in cars, vans and a double decker bus, the members and supporters of the BNP formed up. Setting out from a building site, the march proceeded along the road towards Thamesmead town centre.

After several hundred yards, 4 or 5 groups of 10-20 local youngsters began joining the march column swelling it still further as the march progressed.

At one point, the procession passed just 200 yards from the Hawksmoor youth club at which 200 reds had gathered. Fifty of them broke away to throw rocks at the rear of the BNP column. None of these found a target however and the BNP marched on, past a tower block where local people leaned over their balconies smiling and waving as the march passed by.

What happened next was that a quivering police Superintendent, David Mellish, served a notice on march organiser, Richard Edmonds directing the march back to the start point under the terms of the public order act.

Police chief jellyfish Mellish, with hundreds of police, including mounted and riot police standing by didn't feel he could control a rag bag bunch of 50-200 low lifes bent on causing trouble. As one bitter Police Constable escorting the march put it:— ''My lot couldn't organise a p... up in a brewery.''

A lot of BNP members and supporters rather wished that the police hadn't been present at all, since the BNP marchers would have easily dealt with the reds even if the police couldn't!

Marching back to the start and rally point, a deafening chant of 'Rights for Whites' and 'Rule Britannia' could be heard along with 'There ain't no black in the Union Jack.'

At the rally site, Stephen Tyler, Richard Edmonds and National Organiser, Dave Bruce addressed the crowd, a collection from which raised several hundred pounds. To this should be added a donation of £1,000 from a grateful supporter just before the march. The day had gone extremely well and the icing on the cake was still to come with huge prime time, national T.V. news coverage later on — on BBC 1 (three times), BBC 2 and ITV.

The available transport — 4 cars, 5 transits and a double decker bus was seriously overloaded as the BNP marchers were transported just several miles down the road to Welling to enjoy a well earned drink. Local people preferred walking to a nearer watering hole.

REDS ROUTED

After the BNP left the area, running battles were fought between local youngsters and the red outsiders. Earlier on, 100 reds had attacked the Abbey Arms pub near Abbey Wood train station walking in throwing bottles at 20 drinking nationalists. The very tough bunch of patriots inside immediately fought back, driving the reds out and chasing them down the road. Two of the reds had to be admitted to hospital and serves them right!

All in all, a very exciting day! But behind the obvious success of the BNP's 'Rights for Whites' campaign in S.E. London, what is the real story and lesson of Thamesmead? What are the facts?

THAMESMEAD — THE FACTS

Thamesmead in south east London is a large sprawling district on the bank of the Thames completely isolated from neighbouring areas — linked by just two roads to the rest of London. The setting to Stanley Kubrick's film, Clockwork Orange, Thamesmead is a vast concrete jungle with its windswept precincts and tower blocks. With few amenities, little job opportunity and poor communications. An area of real social deprivation.

Thamesmead is also overwhelmingly white and local youngsters with few prospects resent the intrusion of blacks into their community. The fashion for carrying knives has led to two blacks being stabbed and killed in gang fights.

Since then there has been a protest march at the first killing, by imported blacks and left-wingers, provocatively starting at Thamesmead and going past the BNP's bookshop. But what about the whites?

So far as the politicians are concerned, the whites of Thamesmead don't count. They're not interested.

For the gang killing of another gang member — black teenager, Rolan Adams. The entire community of Thamesmead is being criminalised. Local people on Thamesmead contacted the BNP and the 'Rights for Whites' campaign took off on Thamesmead and Abbey Wood.

When the reds left Thamesmead, they left an entire community united against them. Many had actually fought against them. The only people to have stood up for the white community of Thamesmead has been the British National Party.

It is up to the BNP now, to form a new group in Thamesmead, to solidly campaign for 'Rights for Whites' and a better deal for for the people and area of Thamesmead.

What we stand for

- The establishment of a government of national unity that will put an end to nationally divisive party warfare; the return of leadership and statesmanship to British affairs.
- An end to immigration and a start to repatriation.
- British withdrawal from the Common Market
- The disbanding of the multi-racial Commonwealth and its replacement by a new Commonwealth of self-governing white states.
- British ownership and control of British industry and resources.
- Protection of British industry by the selective exclusion of foreign manufactured goods from the British market.
- An end to the financial swindle that causes inflation and slump, and its replacement by a sane and fair financial system that will give the people the purchasing power to buy the goods they produce.
- The subordination of the power of the City to the power of government, and the harnessing of the City to the needs of British industry.
- The regeneration of British farming, with the object of achieving the maximum possible self-sufficiency in food production.
- Rejection of both the poll tax and its substitute, the new 'property tax', and a return to the old rates system, though with fairer rebates allowing for differences in income and in the numbers occupying properties.
- A healthy environment for a healthy people — the protection of our countryside and an end to the architectural disfigurement of our towns and cities.
- Tougher treatment of criminals, including the return of the death penalty.
- A return to traditional methods of education, with stronger discipline in the classroom and the sacking of 'trendy' teachers.
- An alternative defence strategy: withdrawal from NATO, closure of all foreign military and air bases in Britain, the strengthening of Britain's defences and a position of armed neutrality.
- An end to overseas aid and the allocation of the money saved to the financing of repatriation and greater help for the needy at home.
- The crushing of the IRA, the termination of the Anglo-Irish Agreement and firm support for the loyalist majority in Northern Ireland.
- Repeal of the laws permitting homosexuality and abortion (except where the latter is the result of rape or necessary on medical grounds), the wiping out of AIDS and a return to healthy moral values aimed at strengthening the family and community.
